METHODOLOGICAL ASPECTS OF CROSS-NATIONAL SOCIOLOGICAL SURVEYS ON VICTIMIZATION AND SAFETY

Paper analyzes the characteristics of the international sociological research on criminal victimization, personal security and policing. We consider the content of the questionnaires of the International Crime Victims Survey, the European Crime and Safety Survey, the World Gallup Poll, the World Justice Project, the European Social Survey, the Eurobarometer, the main indicators and scales, types of opinion polls and methods of selection of respondents.

Keywords: cross-national public opinion polls, crime, safety, police performance.
