CONCEPT AND CONTENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE AND LEGAL REGULATION OF MANAGEMENT IN THE NATIONAL POLICE OF UKRAINE

On the basis of the generalization of various scientific approaches to the definition of the nature and legal nature of the categories «legal regulation» and «administrative and legal regulation», given the proposed concept of «management in the National Police of Ukraine», the definition of «administrative and legal regulation of management in National Police of Ukraine has been formulated «which should be understood as a comprehensive, based on current national legislation activities to optimize and streamline legal relations in the field of management bodies and units of the police, aimed at ensuring its integrity, optimal functional and structural structure, determination of the quantity and quality of labor resources, creation of appropriate conditions for their activities, interaction and coordination, as well as logistics and information support for the proper implementation of police duties, tasks and functions.

It was found that the management process in the National Police of Ukraine should be considered in three aspects: a) as the management of the system of bodies and units of the National Police of Ukraine (organization and coordination of all parts of the system); b) management in the system of bodies and subdivisions of the National Police of Ukraine (planning and organization of work on the ground, control over the activities of grassroots units); c) management in a structural subdivision (department, service) of the system of bodies of the National Police of Ukraine.

It is emphasized that the content of administrative and legal regulation of management in the National Police of Ukraine is revealed through the definition of the whole complex of elements that reflect its essence and internal structure, namely: purpose, object and subject of administrative and legal regulation, its subjects, principles, methods and forms.

The peculiarities of administrative and legal regulation of management in the National Police of Ukraine are highlighted, in particular: 1) it has a special subject of regulation; 2) it is based on a system of interconnected and mutually agreed administrative and legal regulations, a significant part of which is related to legal facts; 3) it is carried out by authorized subjects of management in the National Police of Ukraine by the complex of legal means; 4) it often involves the issuance of acts of an implementation of the rule of law by chiefs of different structural and hierarchical levels; 5) it is a kind of state influence on the functioning of the system of bodies and subdivisions of police department; 6) it requires control over the effectiveness of an implementation by the state.
